Volunteering at St Joseph's Hospice

A volunteer is someone who helps other people.

They do lots of different jobs in the Hospice and in the community.

Volunteers do not get paid.

Café Volunteers help make tea and coffee for visitors.

Retail Volunteers work in our shops.

Volunteers also visit people in the community who are lonely.

These are just some of the ways volunteers help us.

You can help us too if you are older than 17.

We will support you to find the right volunteer role.
