

Privacy Policy

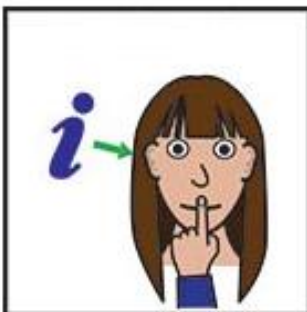

This is an easy read copy of the Hospice privacy statement

A privacy statement tells you how we look after your information

This might be personal information, like your name, address and date of birth

Or sensitive information, like your religion or information about your health

St Joseph's Hospice has a Data Protection Officer

It is their job to make sure the Hospice is careful with your information

If you have questions about this statement you can contact:

Gerard Bowden at St Joseph's Hospice

The Hospice collects information about people who use our services or our website

And about people who fundraise for us, go to our events or work for us

We use information for lots of different reasons. Some examples are:

To look after you if you are a patient

To deliver things to you if you buy something from one of our shops

To pay your wages if you work for us

To send you information about the Hospice

To ask you to fundraise with us

To invite you to an event

We only collect your information if we really need to

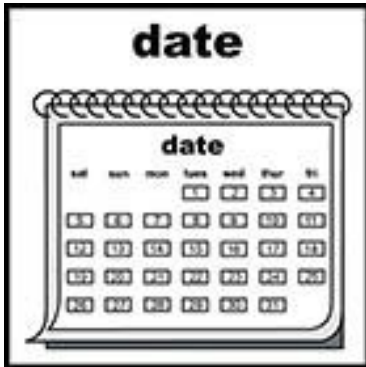

There are rules about collecting and using your information

We only keep your information if the law says we can

We will keep your information safe

We only keep your information for as long as we really need to

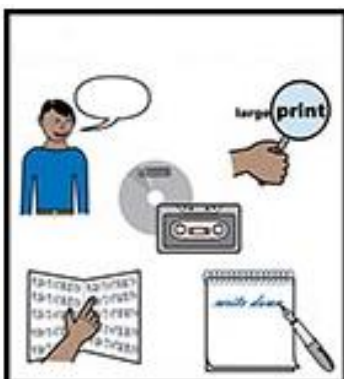

You can ask us what type of information we collect, what we do with it and why

You have the right to know what information we have about you.

To find out about this please contact Gerard Bowden at St Joseph's Hospice on 020 8525 6000

You have the right to get a copy of the information we have about you

To find out about this please contact Gerard Bowden at St Joseph's Hospice on 020 8525 6000

If we have information about you that is wrong, you can contact Gerard Bowden at St Joseph's Hospice to have it fixed on 020 8525 6000

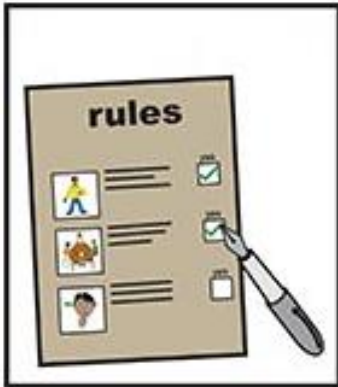

If you want us to delete your information, you can ask Gerard Bowden at St Joseph's Hospice about this on 020 8525 6000

If you want to limit what we do with your information, you can ask Gerard Bowden at St Joseph's Hospice about this on 020 8525 6000

If you want to stop us from having any information about you, you can ask Gerard Bowden at St Joseph's Hospice about this on 020 8525 6000

There are very strict rules about all these things

We might not be able to do what you want

But we will if we can.

Thank you for reading our Privacy Policy
